Leigh's picks are exactly the types of shops I can get lost in, and she's found so many of them. Her photos are elegant captures of the mood inside, and special gems hidden in those large spaces. I love how the TOC is arranged by locale so it feels like you're on a journey as you move through the book. The map at the front of each section carry that feeling through. Such a beautiful piece of art.4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. This book is AMAZING!By Jill GregoryThis book is amazing ! It is such a fun read. It has so much information . I love it . I can't wait to go to London .3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Lovely photos; super content!By Susan W. MetcalfVery engaging book. The lovely photographs invite one to open the book. However, the text will keep your attention. Not only are the descriptions of the shops very detailed, they communicate the unique ambiance of each individual shop.

With a design aesthetic to inspire any craft lover, London Stitch and Knit: A Craft Lovers Guide to Londons Fabric, Knitting and Haberdashery Shops seamlessly documents the citys best to provide a comprehensive guide that encompasses the handmade and the vintage.Freelance writer and photographer Leigh Metcalf discovers the hidden gems in Londons ever-growing craft community, promoting independent shops as well as craftspeople and their work. Ever since she arrived in London from the US, Metcalf has made it her mission to discover the best places for haberdashery supplies. Drawing on her experience from the last five years, she combines well-informed narrative, illustrations and a beautiful, layered design, to discover the history and operations of approximately 50 shopsdivided by London territories.Metcalf graduated from Georgia State University with a BA in English Literature. Her freelance career has seen articles published for magazines such as Mollie Makes and Pretty Nostalgic. London Stitch and Knit is born of Metcalfs successful blog Found, Now Home, described by Lauren Smith, Creative Director of Pop-Up Magazine as one of only a handful of blogs that I even bother reading anymore.
